

I am extremely upset about the decision of Sinclair Broadcasting to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election under the guise of "news". The fact that Sinclair stations reach about 25% of the US population is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

I am very concerned about huge conglomerates that use public airwaves to push their agenda. I do not want public airwaves pushing one political position and calling it news.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
